✓ How do I reach Mangalore?

Mangalore is a coastal city situated in Karnataka state. It is well connected by air and land. Mangalore has an international airport. However, the international connectivity is limited to Gulf countries. Bangalore (Bengaluru) and Bombay (Mumbai) are good alternatives for port of entry to India. Mangalore has good air connectivity between these two cities. Jet airways, Spice Jet and Air India operate flights between Mangalore and Bangalore and/or Mumbai. There is an overnight train which connects Bangalore to Mangalore. There are plenty of buses which ply between Bangalore and Mangalore.

✓ How do I reach the institution from the airport?

The airport is located about 20 kilometres (12.5 miles) from the institution and is a 30 minute drive. There are pre-paid taxi counters at the airport which can be used to hire a taxi. Generally it costs about Rs. 600 from the airport to the institution.
