

Expectations of students

To be successful, students must be aware of the challenges ahead of them and be willing and able to work toward meeting those challenges. Knowing what faculty expect helps students get the most out of the learning experience in the classroom.

Students should demonstrate:

Desire to learn

1. Display a positive attitude by viewing each class as an opportunity to learn something new.
2. Actively engage in gaining knowledge and skills from each class and assignment.
3. Structure time to make classes and studying a priority.
4. Be responsible for your own success.

Responsibility for Learning

1. Be engaged and active in class.
2. Stay informed about course requirements.
3. Use time and other resources wisely.
4. Complete and submit assignments on time.
5. Communicate with the module leader when you have questions.
6. Give the module leader and fellow students your complete attention during class.
7. Seek help in a timely manner.

Honesty and Integrity

1. Do your own work, without compromise.
2. Be honest in all communications, oral and written.
3. Cite sources appropriately.

Respect

1. Respect diverse opinions, backgrounds, and life experiences of others.
2. Show respect for instructors' knowledge, experience, and education.
3. Be punctual. Arrive on time and stay for the entire class.
4. Refrain from behaviours that may distract others.
5. Communicate with instructors outside of class at appropriate times and places.
